DETAILED ACTION

The following action is in response to application 10/668,485 filed on September 22, 2004.

Drawings

The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the “energy storage device/battery” must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as “amended.” If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. The replacement sheet(s) should be labeled “Replacement Sheet” in the page header (as per 37 CFR 1.84(c)) so as not to obstruct any portion of the drawing figures. If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

With regard to claim 1, applicant claims that each electric machine is connectable to one of the input and output rotational coupling by independently controllable clutch devices.

However, in both embodiments, the second machine (M/G #2) is always connectable to the output rotational coupling. This claim language is confusing.

With regard to claim 2 (this will not be treated with art), rotors of the electric machines are claimed to be connected/disconnected to elements of the “planetary gears” via the clutch devices. In both embodiments, the rotors are always connected to an element of the planetary gear sets. Also, applicant claims planetary gear sets, and then references planetary gears. These are completely different terms, and this claim does not appear to be valid.

With regard to claim 6, applicant references “the clutch device”, however, applicant previously claimed “independently controllable clutch devices.” It is unclear if applicant is making reference to one particular clutch, or respective clutches for each sun gear (which appears to be the case). A similar problem occurs in claim 8 and 10.

Art Unit: 3681

With regard to claim 8, applicant's wording is unclear. It is suggested that applicant amend the claim to clarify that a compound clutch device comprises of three clutches that connect the first planetary gear set with at least one of

With regard to claims 14-20 (these will not be treated with art), applicant is seems to be claiming contradictory limitations all throughout the claims. With regard to claim 14, applicant claims "battery charging" without claiming a battery (an electric energy storage device is claimed on line 3). Applicant also claims "one motor/generator" on line 4, and then references "the motor generators" on line 14. Applicant also claims a "fixable gear" on line 6 (with regard to one of the first two planetary gear sets). However, these gear sets do not have a "fixable" gear. They do have a "fixed" gear (both being the ring gears). In claim 16, applicant beings to claim many clutches, even though only one clutch device has been claimed. In claim 17, "the alternative connections to the second planetary gear set" lacks antecedent basis.

In order to clarify what is being claimed, it is suggested applicant label each clutch. A single clutch can not be later claimed as many clutches. Also, applicant should correct the claim language to read upon the disclosed inventions.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1, 3-5, and 9-13 (as best understood) are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Schmidt '035. Schmidt teaches an input coupling 76; an output coupling 74; two electric machines 16/14; clutch devices 40/62/72; an electric energy storage device 18; a controller ECU; one of said electric machines can rotate in both an engine-wise and anti-engine-wise direction; the machines are motor/generators; first 24 and second 22 planetary gear sets; a third planetary gear set 26/28; a brake 72 to fix an element of the third planetary gear set; different operational modes, including motor running, regeneration, reverse, synchronous switchovers, etc. (Col. 2-Col. 3).

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 6-8 (if interpreted correctly) would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Kotani, Heitmann, Holmes, and Schmidt '599, '671' and 973 have been cited to show similar transmissions and controls thereof.

FACSIMILE TRANSMISSION

Submission of your response by facsimile transmission is encouraged. Group 3600's facsimile number is (703) 305-3597. Recognizing the fact that reducing cycle time in the processing and examination of patent applications will effectively increase a patent's term, it is to your benefit to submit responses by facsimile transmission whenever permissible. Such submission will place the response directly in our examining group's hands and will eliminate Post Office processing and delivery time as well as the PTO's mail room processing and delivery time. For a complete list of correspondence not permitted by facsimile transmission, see MPEP 502.01. In general, most responses and/or amendments not requiring a fee, as well as those requiring a fee but charging such fee to a deposit account, can be submitted by facsimile transmission. Responses requiring a fee which applicant is paying by check should not be submitting by facsimile transmission separately from the check.

Responses submitted by facsimile transmission should include a Certificate of Transmission (MPEP 512). The following is an example of the format the certification might take:

I hereby certify that this correspondence is being facsimile transmitted to the Patent and Trademark Office (Fax No. (703) 305-3597) on _____ (Date)

Typed or printed name of person signing this certificate:

If your response is submitted by facsimile transmission, you are hereby reminded that the original should be retained as evidence of authenticity (37 CFR 1.4 and MPEP 502.02). Please do not separately mail the original or another copy unless required by the Patent and Trademark Office. Submission of the original response or a follow-up copy of the response after your response has been transmitted by facsimile will only cause further unnecessary delays in the processing of your application; duplicate responses where fees are charged to a deposit account may result in those fees being charged twice.

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Roger L Pang whose telephone number is 703-305-0445. The examiner can normally be reached on 5:30am to 4:00pm.
